Climb up the mountain
That reaches the sky
Up there's a tower
A thousand miles high

There you must trespass
Escaping his knights
[Incomprehensible]

In there dwells the wizard
His breath like a blizzard
Ancient incantation
Evil revelations

For thousands of years
They have been searching for him high and low
The wizard is here only to disappear
He hides from the world

In through the dungeons
Weapons are drawn
Passage in hiding
Dead before dawn

Master of witchcraft
Friend of the beast
Wisdom through tempest
From the east

In there dwells the wizard
His face like a lizzard
Ancient incantations
Evil revelations

For thousands of years
They have been searching for him high and low
The wizard is here only to bring you fear

For thousands of years
They have been searching for him high and low
The wizard is here only to bring you fear
He hides from the world

For thousands of years
They have been searching for him high and low
The wizard is here only to bring you fear

For thousands of years
They have been searching for him high and low
The wizard is here only to bring you fear
He hides from the world

The wizard
