I wasn't able to see clear when I looked through those teary eyes. I'm building up the confidence so I can face you, ask you

Fuck you I'm never ever gonna trust your shit.
The pain that you've caused, has made me weak.
The trust that you've built was just a lie.
Now I'm building anger inside.
Why can't you see that the child deep inside me is
begging for mercy
and all that I want is Respect - you've got to show some Respect - you've got to show some trust
X2

I wasn't able to see clear when I looked through those teary eyes.
I'm building up the confidence so I can face you, ask you
WHY WHY WHY why do you reject me,
WHY WHY WHY why is it my fault.

You're breaking me down x4
You're breaking- it's not my fault x4

Why can't you see that the child deep inside me is
begging for mercy
and all that I want is
Respect - you've got to show some Respect - you've got to show some

So just tell me
WHY WHY WHY why do you reject me,
WHY WHY WHY why is it my fault.

You're breaking me down x4
You're breaking - You're breaking x4
