I want I want
I can't seem to get what I want or to find the peace of my mind
That I need
I need to fulfill my greed
And I'll walk through hell or heaven til I succeed

I want I want it's never enough
I dream all the big dreams for all the right stuff that I need
I need as much as I must
And when the end comes from dust to dust we go

Like fading stars under the sky
You've got to get to live before you die
Before you die

Well today sees the dawning of a new daylight
Another last chance to pull the world to right
But if we've got no control of the skin that we're living in
Tell me why can't I have another hit of that adrenaline
Can I have another hit of that adrenaline

Like fading stars under the sky
You've got to get to live before you die
No time to just take a rest look around let your feet touch the ground now
What if I'm never coming down now
What if I'm never coming down

Higher higher high
Higher higher higher
No price I wouldn't pay
To take your breath away
No price I wouldn't pay to take your breath away
One more time
One more

Can I have another hit I wanna have another
Can I have another hit I wanna have another
Why can't I have another hit I wanna have another...
