We live all in torment
Share the same old war
Are afraid for the unknown that comes
There's no light to follow
Only a life to sorrow
Embrace death and you will come far

With this hate we share
And this pain we hear
Trough the silence of the night
The shadows are rising
They are still not dying
And the darkness is their guide

I've been baptized in the blood
Fuck this world I will fall apart
I'm not that fucker from the cross
But hear my message it is hard

We live all in torment
Share the same old war
Are afraid for the unknown that comes
There's no light to follow
Only a life to sorrow
Embrace death and you will come far away
