To get off tiresome and lazy days
I don't want to rage with my yesterdays.
I can see you are holding risky soul,
Otherwise, courage is it clothing you?
Get ready to fly in this dark world and wide.
However hard it may be, I go to ride over.
North wind, wake up! South wind, blow on!
Just support by side!

(chorus 1)

To be myself I never stop lookin' for love.
And I can feel we are one of a kind.
Reputation has no meaning to me at all,
Yet I wanna be counted by my fellow all the time.

I can see you are holding risky soul,
Otherwise, courage is it clothing you?
When my fate wheels to go out of my sight,
I had rave with fury rather than sit tight here.
East wind, get set! West wind, rush on!
Just support with your might!

(chorus 2)

Be courageous, be sincere at lookin' for love.
We always follow on our own proper pride.
I don't care how much is left when life is over.
I just mind how I retain me as my own in my life.
