Hold on and don't give up
Don't you worry, you don't have to cry
'Cause He, He see's what you're going through Yes, yes He does

God is willing and He is able
This did not catch Him by surprise
So just trust Him and just oh, step aside

Be still and don't question it
These obstacles they were allowed
He wants to take you, higher and higher
And if you will hold on

God is willing and more than able
This did not catch Him by surprise
So just trust Him and just step aside

Oh, I know He's faithful, my God is faithful
To do what He said He'll do
Now if He said just believe it, there's nothing He can't do
You must stand on His word, cast all your cares on Him
(Give them to Him)
'Cause He knows and He loves you
He did it for me that's why I can say

Step just step aside
God can work a miracle for you, step aside
You got to let go and let God
And let go and let God be God

Move yourself out of the way
Move your pride out of the way
He'll never leave you nor forsake you
That's what I know, it ain't just what I heard

So thank You Lord for being awesome to me
You're marvelous, praise Him, praise Him
Oh, step aside, let go, let go, let go, let go

He knows what you go through

He knows what you can bear
He can do what you can't do
So step, so step, so step aside

Thank You Lord
And You're in control
So I step aside
