Turn me red. Cut deep. Kill my head. Slow warm sky.
Rainbow on inner walls. Up speeded sound -the velvet you'll never find. Typewriter notes says: "Later is just too slow, just too slowâ€¦". I think I've all ready used every word I know, about you. I think it's time to let you see the things I see, within you. Screaming soul. I know it won't let go. You don't know how we turn fast to slow.
Typewriter notes says: "Later is just too slow, just to slowâ€¦" So Just come with me I'll take you to the places you never see.
