Don't you climb off my movie screen
You suit perfect in blue light
When you embrace my head
And turn my eyes red
Your rhythm is mine
To break bones with only knives in you mind
And I say later
Later
Grace, I'm okey 'cause I've got a new name
Grace, I'm okey 'cause I've got a new name

Don't talk to remind
I've got so much faith
That I don't want to rewind

Rhythm
Your rhythm is mine
To break bones with only knives in you mind

And I say
Your rhythm is mine
To break bones with only knives in you mind
And I say later
Later

Grace, I'm okey 'cause I've got a new name
Grace, I'm okey 'cause I've got a new name

Grace, I'm okey 'cause I've got a new name
Grace, I'm okey 'cause I've got a new name
