I know, I tell you
That everything is allright
But my body screams
And hurt me the whole night
And the guy in the mirror
He looks just like me
And the way he talks and the way he walks
Maybe he is me ..

I'm collecting memories
From pictures in my head
My thoughts are deadly weapons
That I will never tell
Leland Leland, oh Leland
Leland Leland, oh Leland

How did it get like this?
Slow and heavy
Where is the sun that we used to travel in?
I need your comfort to not dissappear
In an endless run
Towards nothing else than disspear

I'm collecting memories
From pictures in my head
My thoughts are deadly weapons
That I will never tell
Leland Leland, oh Leland
Leland Leland, oh Leland
