Breathe in but don't breathe out
I love the way you look with wings of light
We can lie here all night
Collecting stars in order to shine bright

And anything you say
Will make us ready to start a play
And I'll just pretend
That you're a secret I need to defend

My eyes are red and so heavy
My ears are ringing frequently
Thank you for messing up my head
Now I wont make it to bed

And anything you say
Will make us ready to start a play
And I'll just pretend
That you're a secret I need to defend

And anything you say
Will make us ready to start a play
And I'll just pretend
That you're a secret I need to defend
