History by Shaken
My conscience bleeds, it over.
I can't believe it lives again.
Seems like lives between since you made me see.
Why can't I be free?
I'm on my knees
History in plain view, the past is not forgotten,
and the truth will sing
Tyranny will claim you and deify the conscience and the truth will scream your name
This is my prayer, its over.
My God come down and reign in me.
You're my everything.
Fill me with your dream.
Make me free indeed.
I'm on my knees.
My God I'm screaming,
broken before you.
Take it all away, Jesus!
