Put your ear close to the ground Do you hear a fading sound? If it's lost for getting found--- it's me

Vagabond with no address Fire in the wilderness The patients losing conciousness--- rapidly

Torn between what I can see This picture you have of me Isn't much to look at--- we agree

This light This rain This life This pain

Let me walk down that road Cause you know I have to go You won't be there, but even so Everyone goes-- down that road And you know I have to go You won't be there, but even so Everyone goes
