Chorus:

Gonna take my time
Before I pick the next way Im gonna run to Gonna take my time
Before I find the next heart I'll give my soul to But if time runs out I swear I'll find a way to keep on goin

Up on the corner, of life, Im standin, just standin, kinda doin nothin Bydin my time
I'm standin, seein, the world float by my eyes its almost blindin
I should feel priveledged
But my feet are on the ground, but my mind is ten miles high
And I dont seem to see, all the this and back and forth thats goin on in front of me

(Chorus:)

Im sittin here, just thinkin, about the pavement, under my feet, and the blue, the blue, in the sky And it should be a deep, deep feelin that I get, but not, for I know its only time, time, time, time Though my mouth maybe shut, the voice in my head sings a million tunes
And I dont seem to see, all the this and back and forth
thats goin on in front of me
