If you cross that bed
When you return
I will look so dead
Or resting one eye
Please don't ask me
You know the reason why
Please don't ask me
It only makes you cry

Tell me yes if you're sorry
You'll be sorry for the rest of your life
Tell me yes if you're sorry
You'll be sorry for the rest of your life

It's sin to end this
On such a moral low
That said
I know I'm not rich
I'm just a poor man with money
Cut and crowned
For the rest of my life
Thinking of betrayal
And the black of your knife

'cause I'm wasting
You need to find why I'm wasting?
You wanna find the reason why I'm wasting?
You won't see me
When I close my eyes
You won't find the reasons why I'm wasting
