So take my head baby
And run away with me
We will drive and drive for days
Then go dancing on the beach
And you'll drift away, oh
Out into the sea
And you will ride the waves, oh
Ride them back to me, yeah , alright

I got this girl
She was oh so beautiful
So fine and so unusual
Different for anybody else i know
Shes got the long dark hair and those bright green eyes
And I can feel my hear melt evertime shes smiles, baby

CHORUS

And I don't know what happens next
I haven't read the story yet
But I do know things will never be the same again
And she said
"So take my hand baby and run away with me
we will drive and drive for days
then go dancin on the beach and we'll drift away oh out into the sea and you will ride the waves oh ride them back to me"

I got this girl
She was so mysterious
Had me feeling a little delirious
Calling her a Euphoria
And i was walking the zone
And she paints my picture on the utopian skyline
With the blue moons and golden stars
That glisteningly shine

CHORUS (repeat)
