Everyone talks so fast and walks so slow.
Suddenly in a town they don't know.
Last stop and strangers drink and admitting me in the midnight show and Two kids sweat
as he's trying to get his lips to her neck.
It's all up to him, it's a concession film
But what do you do?
Where have I been lately?
Dirty water interrupted by a bridge that's not too sore on the eye.
Guy in the better looking pants is ruining the other's night and Will he hurt
as the air conditioning draws out the shirt.
It's all up to him, it's a concession film.
But what do you do?
Where have I been lately?

It's if nothing I said knows new.
It's if you've never heard anything true.
but we will try 'til the next time or the last time.

Everyone talks so fast and walks so slow
Suddenly in a town they don't know.
Hours come and minutes fly
the fifteen stories window high and
Two kids sweet
as he tries to stare his shame to his feet.
'cause you owe it to him, it's a concession film.
But what do you do?
Where have I been lately?

It's if nothing I said knows new.
It's if you've never heard anything true.
but we will try 'til the next time or the last time.
