You Am I - Rational Hell

Take a look up take one more mouthful
This time I'm getting it right
It's giving me time or I'm leaving
Or another crying sleepless night

And your tall little brother just loves it when you buy
him
Everything he's got in store
But you'll never you'll regret him
He never could

It means much more than it should
And all the heads knew that it would
It means much more than it should
More than you willed for
It means much more than it should
And all the heads knew that it would
And it stained just as thick as it could
More than you willed for

You're knowing if everyone's been there
And everyone knows the score
'Coz every one time you're pushing Means just another night more
And your tall little brother just loves it when you buy
him
Everything he's got in store
But you'll never you'll regret him
He never could

It means much more than it should
And all the heads knew that it would
It means much more than it should
More than you willed for
It means much more than it should
And all the heads knew that it would
And it stained just as thick as it could
