I see you through the cracks
I want you to want me back
But you can't see the change (and)
He won't help you see the change
My depression is killing me (but)
Your eyes, they won't let you see
The pain that you're putting me through (and)
I can buy myself some time with this painting you drew

Was it a lie when you said you loved me?
You're breaking every promise you made
While we're being just friends
There's always room to improve
I've improved myself, but are you willing to?

I looked you through your eyes
I put up with all of your lies
But you refuse to put all of the mistakes in the past (and)
It's bringing me down to my last
We're heading down the wrong stream (and)
Every night I have a new dream
About me always being with you (because)
I will always love you no matter what we go through

Was it a lie when you said you loved me?
You're breaking every promise you made
While we're being just friends
There's always room to improve
I've improved myself, but are you willing to?

I read the messages on his phone
I'm willing to give up everything that I own
I accepted the fact that we rushed into things too soon (but)
I heard him talking to you when you were in his bedroom
The tequila's hitting empty (and)
The pain is easier to ease when I can hardly see You look at me and still you smile (and)
That alone makes it all worth the while

Was it a lie when you said you loved me?
You're breaking every promise you made
While we're being just friends
There's always room to improve
I've improved myself, but are you willing to?

You tell me we can never again be My somatic sensation says it can be we
Your mouth tells me it's over
Your eyes tell me you feel like a rover

Was it a lie when you said you loved me?
You're breaking every promise you made
While we're being just friends
There's always room to improve
I've improved myself, but are you willing to?
