There's no beginning to my life
There's no end to my fights
I'm stuck in the middle

I hate my life
I hate these fights
I wish God would take them away and
Make them not come back

I don't feel so right
It's the middle of the night
I can't get to sleep
I'm too damn scared
I don't want to die

I hate my life
I hate these fights
I wish God would take them away and
Make them not come back

I wish something right would happen
With my luck, nothing will
Everybody's too damn lazy to help me
I wish they would all go to hell

I hate my life
I hate these fights
I wish God would take them away and
Make them not come back

I see people laughing
Because their lives aren't so hard
I wish I could be like that but
My life is too damn hard

I hate my life
I hate these fights
I wish God would take them away and
Make them not come back

Nothing goes right for me

Everything goes wrong for me
I hate the way others get what they want
I can't get what I want
That's only because my life is too damn hard

I hate my life
I hate these fights
I wish God would take them away and
Make them not come back

I hate my life
I hate these fights
I wish God would take them away and
Make them not come back

My life is too damn hard...

I hate my life
I hate these fights
I wish God would take them away and
