Can we sit alone in the dark
When we're together?
The words you speak keep me alive
I'll live forever

And I never want this to end
Everything feels right

But who are we to change this world?
It always makes my day when you call my name

This will never end
I'm hoping this will never end

When you call,
I can't hang up
Even when we fight about anything
Your words mean everything

Can we talk about our lives
When we're together?
I'll give the final word to you
Happy forever

And I never want this to end
Everything feels right

Like the birds in the wind,
You make my heart just fly,
When you call my name

This will never end
I'm hoping this will never end

When you call,
I can't hang up
Even when we fight about anything

There is no dark or bright
Just know it feels right
It feels right

When you call,
This will never end
I'm hoping this will never end

When you call,
I can't hang up
Even when we fight about anything
Your words mean everything

Can we sit alone in the dark
When we're together?
