Hold on, where did you get those little facts from,
The last I'd heard we hadn't changed for anyone,
To celebrate your pace, your hate for attention,
But hang it high for everyone to see

I've said too many things that I meant,
You don't think for yourself and it shows,
Believe anything that you hear,
But I wouldn't do that to you, even though you do that
to

Confuse, to whom and where I go with all my good news,
The forum said it so fuck it must be true,
How could I ever even think to trust you,
So I'm gonna cut you, cut you, cut you loose

I've said too many things that I meant,
You don't think for yourself and it shows,
Believe anything that you hear,
But I wouldn't do that to you, even though you do that
to me

I've said too many things that I meant,
You don't think for yourself and it shows,
Believe anything that you hear,
But I wouldn't do that to you, even though you do that
to
To me
