So suddenly you are in space and time
Open your heart and don't be so blind
Listen to love
You don't even know what you mean to me
The life that I knew means nothing to me now

Everyday brings something more
Every little thing we're fighting for
Love is the law, love is the law
Love is the law, love is the law

Your laughing at all of the things I say
Well I was the one like you yesterday
Listen to love
And you be the fool when it's sad and done
And I'll be the joke to just let you run.. round

Everyday brings something more
Every little thing we're fighting for
Love is the law, love is the law
Love is the law, love is the law

Yeah
You just need more time
You just need more time to figure it out
You just need more time
You just need more time to figure it out

Everyday brings something more
Every little thing we're fighting for
Love is the law, love is the law
Love is the law, love is the law
