I need to find
Some peace of mind
On every street
Where people meet
Now I know that it's not profound
Love won't make the world go round

Discovery
Of astronomy
Makes the stars still glow
For those below
You believe more than you'd ever doubt
But you still don't know what it's all about

Everybody knows
It's not something new
Everybody knows
It hides within you

There's someone near
But it's never clear
Just getting by
With no disguise
Spend your days living like a clown
Love won't make the world go round

You need to find
Some peace of mind
On every street
Where people meet
You believe more than you'd ever doubt
You still don't know what I'm talking about

Everybody knows
It's not something new
Everybody knows
It hides within you

Something new
Something new

You'll be the one who fakes it
You'll be the one that hates it
Yeah, yeah, yeah
You'll be the one who fakes it
You'll be the one that hates it
Yeah, yeah, yeah
