(There he goes)
There he goes, the only I'm thinking of
There he goes, the only one I'll ever love
He has left me for no reason at all
& he probably won't write or call

There he goes to take his love with someone new
What went wrong? What on earth will I do?
He has left me; now just watch the teardrops fall

(We had such a wonderful beginning)
Mmmm such my last time
(Promised "I'll love her till the ending")
Now that he's gone, I'm 'bout to lose my mind, wo

Look at him; he's walking away from me
Leaving a love oh so tenderly
There he goes & here I am all alone
Darling, what on earth went wrong?
Please come back, please please come back to me
