Take this common thread
Pull it from my dress
If you're gonna take my life
Take my thoughts, and take my head

I've been pretending too long
Anyway
And if you'd just break my heart now
That's all I'd have to go through today

So you think you have my soul
All you have is this empty book
Pages are torn from the binding so long ago
Even before you

And I've been pretending too long
Anyway
And if you'd just break my heart now
That's all I'd have to go through today

You do what you know to be right
And if that means you go you leave tonight
I wish you could've seen my face
When you turned around

And I've been pretending too long
I couldn't say
If I still love you
After today

If I still love you
Anyway
