How you gonna sleep tonight?
You look as though someone died
You sure everything 's alright?
Take my hand and hold on tight
And everything will be alright
Everything will turn out fine
And you can't
Stop living in a, stop living in a, stop living in a fantasy
No you can't
Stop living in a, stop living in a, stop living in a fantasy

'Cause I'm on your side for the last time
Don't feel denied for the last time

You say you wanna go tonight
Running to the city lights
They never ever looked so bright
We used to really try to find some peace of mind
And open up your eyes

'Cause I'm on your side for the last time
Don't feel denied for the last time

No you can't
Stop living in a, stop living in a, stop living in a fantasy
No you can't
Stop living in a, stop living in a, stop living in a fantasy
Stop living in a fantasy

'Cause I'm on your side for the last time
Don't feel denied for the last time
