you say i betray you that i'm always changing when all i really do is not stay true to your illusions you phone & talk marriage cover up the mouthpiece cursing at your mother grumbling 'bout your dinner

i am not your possition not another toy for the boy weary of your direction tired of your desire to control honey, i've got tell you it's like walkin' tightrope i'm leaving your island

built a ship of my own
i just want some boobies
so i say good bye, daddy bye sure i cook lunch for you if you are pure & spotless
