I fell in love the moment I saw you, and time stood still
But it stopped, the moment you said I don't love you
Npw the worlds spinnin' round emotions out of control
And my friends are all saying they told me so

I'll let you walk on heart, spit on my soul,
I'll let you bring me to my knees.
I'll let you keep tugging on these old heart strings,
Keep pulling me down 'til I'm begging you please,
But I'll be damned if I give up every last bit of my pride,
So I won't let you See Me Cry

Saw you with him tonight and I knew, you wanted him,
Just like I desperatley want to forget you
Well I know we're through, before we even began,
And right now girl I feel like Less of a man

I'll let you walk on heart, spit on my soul,
I'll let you bring me to my knees.
I'll let you keep tugging on these old heart strings,
Keep pulling me down 'til I'm begging you please,
But I'll be damned if I give up every last bit of my pride,
So I won't let you See Me Cry

Oh, But I'll be damned if I give up every last bit of my pride,
So I won't let you See Me Cry
No I won't let you See Me Cry
No No No No No No No
