10) Scene Seven: II. One Last Time (03:47)

- James LaBrie

[Present]

[Nicholas:]

It doesn't make any sense

This tragic ending

In spite of the evidence

There's something still missing

Heard some of the rumors told

A taste of one's wealth

Did Victoria wound his soul?

Did she bid him farewell?

[Past]

[Victoria:]

One last time

We'll lay down today

One last time

Until we fade away

One last time

We'll lay down today

One last time

We slowly fade away... away

[Present]

[Nicholas:]

Here I am inside his home

It holds the many clues

To my suspicions

And as I'm standing here right now

I'm finally shown what I have always known

Coincidence I can't believe

As my childhood dreams slowly come true

Are these her memories

Awakened through my eyes

This house has brought back to life

An open door

I walk on through

Into his bedroom

Feeling as cold as outside

The walls disappear

To some woman who's screaming

A man pleads forgiveness

His words I cannot hear
