After that confrontation you left me wringing my cold hands we shared some information we might not recover from and I watch your convictions melt like ice cubes in an ocean you were so poorly cast as a malcontent

You've got them all on your side
that just makes more for doubt to slaughter
"I never knew he thought that!"
I heard you say falling out of the van
"Don't ask for his opinion
they ought to drown him in holy water"
Will you remember my reply
when your high horse dies?

We'd like to go the distance but not a one of us is gunna see no body is wise enough to turn this ancient boat around these are the muddy waters I am swimming in to make a living that I might drown in them should come as no surprise

You want them all on your side
that just makes more for doubt to slaughter
"I never know her thought that!"
I heard you say falling out of the van
"Don't ask for his opinion
they ought to drown him in holy water"
Will you remember my reply
when your high horse dies?

You've got them all on your side
that just makes more for doubt to slaughter
"I never knew he thought that!"
I heard you say falling out of the van
"Don't ask for his opinion
they ought to drown him in holy water"

Will you remember my reply
One finger parallel to the sky
