"Waving Goodbye"

Visit "Waving Goodbye" on MotoLyrics.com

Coming to conclusion faced with evolution
Crying out for anyone to take away the pain.
Anger and frustration met with desperation
Leaving behind what I know to go another way

Guess you don't remember what you promised me
Can you see me waving goodbye?

Drinking myself senseless abusing every substance waking up and finding out my innocence was gone
It was an illusion.
The joy that I had found in giving up and giving in and running from your love

Faithless, Faceles,
I turn to you, can you see me waving?
