Remember back in the day
We used to scream aloud we love each other
Then this miserable world
Just had to come along and steal our thunder
We would talk until two
Then we'd lay around until the morning came
Just as still as the stars
That I'd capture on your will

It's our biggest mistake
(Please don't say it again)
It's our biggest mistake
(Please don't say it again)
How many nights can we fake
(Please don't say it)
It's the first step for us to make amends

This night is silent as graves
We visit our own when we both see each other
Music's shaking the walls
I'm shaking the hands up at their present lovers
Who am I to accuse
I'm looking for body heat to warm my frozen bones
Staying numb for a night
In attractive strangers' arms

It's our biggest mistake
(Please don't say it again)
It's our biggest mistake
(Please don't say it again)
How many nights can we fake
(Please don't say it)
It's the first step for us to make amends
It's the first step for us to make amends

This queen's been crowned
How many ways can you turn this around
Too much too fast
How many days will we live in the past
I feel like we're just made to fall apart
Maybe we're just born, born to break a heart

Or two

It's our biggest mistake
It's our biggest mistake

It's our biggest mistake
(Please don't say it again)
It's our biggest mistake
(Please don't say it again)
How many nights can we fake
(Please don't say it)
It's the first step for us to make amends
It's the first step for us to make amends
