How can I just save you
When all my faith is gone?
Wide suffering in you
Craving me craving life, reeling time...

We're living a dying
Tryin' to remain alive
We live in a lie...

How can I just trust you
When there's no reason why...
My soul burns on you
Deprived of time

We're living a dying
(we're livinn just a dying)
Tryin' to remain alive
(tryin' to repair past and present
'cause we're young and we...)
We live in a lie...

Calling out by blindness and by faith
Just crawling fears in my head
The neverending finished here in pain
Let may it be now, 'cause we're madness in mind,
Death in life
Hate in love
Lost in time...

(From Ep: "Objects in mirror are closer than they appear")
