In the date of death of my innocence
Like a red bird flight upon your head
In this desperate time I will understand
The slow falling of this empty light... empty light...

My vampire is gonna take is ring
Made by blood and gold and ancient shame
Looking forward for the moonlight time
Open up to the sorrow star... that I will follow

And I'd want to delete the words I've just said
And I miss life 'cause I hear the twilight sound
And I'd want to create warmth around me
In the cold wind of the deepest twilight sound...

In this old garden kissed by the sun
My sorrow tree is sorrow of thee
But I'll follow you
