I used to walk Suzy home from school
She painted my portrait in a red vest
Her parents always had lots to eat in the fridge
It was where I first saw Stop Making Sense

It all started out so innocently
I had a crush on this friend of Suzy's
So when we'd walk home she'd talk to me
About the different things that her friend found interesting
But as you might guess like at the end of the movie
I lost interest in her friend and I fell for Suzy
It was all so exciting, it was all so new to me
When I was in grade nine, when I was walking home with Suzy
When I was walking home with Suzy
