Eyes of a child
Simple and wild
Where did you go?

I see pictures of home
Where I'm never alone
And warmth surrounds me
Keeps me whole

I'd like to think we deserve a beginning
I'd like to think that we fight 'cause we're winning
Reach up so high,
Never touch the sky

Time passes by
The struggle goes on
And I don't feel warm
Anymore

I'd like to think that we'll all be forgiven
I know we sin, but it's part of this living

Reach up so high,
Never touch the sky

(Hey hey hey) We will not be underrated
(Hey hey hey) We're gonna fight until we make it
(Hey hey hey) The world at your feet
Reach up so high
Never tough the sky

I'd like to think we deserve a beginning
I know we sin, but it's part of this living
Reach up so high
Until we touch the sky

Oh, you're touching the sky
Your head's in the clouds
You're reaching so high
You're touching the sky
