

Thomas Denver Jonsson

"Then I kissed her softly"

Visit "Then I kissed her softly" on MotoLyrics.com

I fell in the muddy water in the old backyard afternoon somehow, the city is golden and somewhere is home It's alright, Tessie under the bleeding sun they closed the station so long ago all day and summer long

Some things I do cause I love you other to make you love me But that doesn't mean sweet angel that either of them isn't true To be undying
in a dying society
I hope someday you will wear my last name
all day and summer long
all day and summer long

I fell in the muddy water
I was blinded by hate old home streets and all white trees and climbing the stairs At the corner of the railroad where the sun allows the dust to move from side to side
all day and summer long
all day and summer long

I know I know there is something I know, I learned it from you you are made of gold

I fell in the muddy water
we are all the victims (and the murderers)

