There I am in his car. The radio's on.
"I Didn't Mean To Turn You On" is on.
The one with the girl singer.
He tore open my fishnet stockings. I don't know what I
Was doing.
I was a child in some fishnet stockings, but I think I
Knew what I was doing.
Somebody forgive me. I didn't know what I was wearing.
He had me caught in fishnet stockings, but I think I
Knew what I was wearing.
There I am in his house. His wife's downstairs,
But I want to be anything he wants me to be.
I'm fucking stupid.
He tore open my fishnet stockings. I didn't know what I
Was doing.
I was a child in some fishnet stockings, but I think I
Knew what I was doing.
Somebody forgive me, I didn't know what I was waering.
He had me caught in fishnet stockings, but I think I Knew what I was wearing.
