Lately, you have changed the side of you that I've always seen.

Lately, the water is shallow, there's no flow.

Lately, you want me to try so hard for you.

Lately, I wouldn't follow, where you go.

Let me get situated, I cannot fucking take a breakdown.

Focus on the punctuated, it's just a concentrated breakdown.

Constantly, you say you've had a rougher life than I could see.

Constantly, we all have those, when alone.

Constantly, things are inadequate for you.

Constantly, I'm not as hollow as your game show.

Let me get situated, I cannot fucking take a breakdown.

Focus on the punctuate, it's just a concentrated
breakdown.

Circling in my tracks.

Circling.

Deserving a new past.

Deserving.

I try harder than you.

I try harder than you.

I try harder than you.

I don't even try.

Let me get situated, I cannot fucking take a breakdown.

Focus on the punctuate, it's just a concentrated
breakdown.
