Take a dare, don't tell the truth, keep this between me and you
Whispers become loud, when word of this gets out Will the message cause a motion, we won't know till we get there
When the sun's down, light's come up, friends and enemies come together

Summer nights hitting, it's so hard we're blistering
Can't keep from moving, the season is rising We're too young to fight it, we stand united Summer nights hitting, it so hard we're blistering Can't stop to sleep it off, sleep it off

Hearts are beating to the sound, kids are living underground
Rumors get so loud, we want to scream and shout
It's taking over now, you can't control it You're shaking, soaking wet in the middle of the night again

Will the message cause a motion, we won't know till we
get there
When the sun's down, lights come up, friends and
enemies come together

Summer nights hitting, it's so hard we're blistering
Can't keep from moving, the season is rising
We're too young to fight it, we stand united
Summer nights hitting, it so hard we're blistering Can't stop to sleep it off, can't stop to sleep it off

Will the message cause a motion, we won't know till we
get there
When the sun's down, lights come up, friends and
enemies come together

Summer nights hitting, it's so hard we're blistering
Can't keep from moving, the season is rising
We're too young to fight it, we stand united
Summer nights hitting, it so hard we're blistering Can't stop to sleep it off

Summer nights hitting, it's so hard we're blistering
Can't keep from moving, the season is rising
We're too young to fight it, we stand united
