I haven't heard from you since
Well I can't even recall your face
Isn't it sad to think that
Our younger years have been replaced by Responsibilities and life's little intricacies
When everyone's tryin hard to be
It's easy to loose track

You said something's to me that
I have had trouble forgetting about
But there ain't no sense in holdin
Grudges forever that's the simple way out
We may not be so close now
Stayin enemies I wont allow
And the only way that I know how
To let go is to tell you
I forgive you
I forgive you
I forgive you
I forgive you, you, you, you
La de dee da la da
Ohh - ohh

No sense, no sense in holdin grudges
Let it go
