And so the social man went through a change and now he cries out for guidance

Well I tell you what, you just force them to hate you
It's so obvious that shutting up could've helped things
One can always state his case but there's a price to pay

Who are you to speak like this?
Hating, judging everything
While all you do is feed off others insecurities
You've gone too far

So you're telling me to just (fuck off)
Cause I know nothing about you

Well I tell you what I don't need that information
Cause I've seen enough and man, you're pathetic
I'll just let you dig your grave if you can't behave

Who are you to speak like this?
Hating, judging everything
While all you do is feed off others insecurities
You've gone too far

(Patience is running out and you've already pushed this way too far)

Time is running out for you

Who are you to speak like this?
Hating, judging everything
While all you do is feed off others insecurities
You've gone too far

Time is running out, I said
Time is running out for you
You've gone too far
