One night in the middle of the forest they come
Ten warriors, brave men who fight for the land
They sit around a fire telling their tales
Legends about kings and soldiers and fears

Aaaaaaa â€¦!

A story fits in memory from age to age
Feats of warriors which became new legends to tell
The fire in the forest still glows high in the sky
Proud warriors are never ready to rest

The fire in the forest still glows high in the sky
Proud warriors are never ready to rest

Aaaaaaaa â€¦!

When the firefly sparks into the blue sky
A new saga will be narrated by bards
And the nations will know us by the tale
Of our deeds, of our deeds
In time

The fire in the forest still glows high in the sky
Proud warriors are never ready to rest

Aaaaaaaa â€¦!
