I never knew that I had a reason to be happy
I never knew what good could come within
But if I knew that all the poison surrounding me
Would be evil trying to pull me down
Concrete angel I'm not the only one
Standing in this cold hearted place with all mortals
Now I am strong and I am wise
To see the goodness and the badness filled in your heart
Now I see the rough shell is hard to crack open
I have to find something that can make it fall on its own
Now that I found the right words I can see more clearly And I can breathe this world without a doubt and not ever give up
Concrete angel I am the only one
Who can advise the entire world to make it right
All of the mercy and all of the guidance
Won't compare with all things that we should change
I know I can't make it all better with this little song
But I will try to keep my head up and sing
But my concrete angel, I am the goddess of the wind
I can see all the clouds giving up and letting storms come on in
But if we know the symbol of the concrete angel we will be able to survive
And if you hear my song and if you sing along you will be happy to be alive
Concrete angel watching over me
I want to thank you for all the times you've been there Concrete angel keeping me
I want to thank you for the warmth of your arms
Concrete angel helping my needs
I want God to bless you and Lord bless me
Concrete angel you are the one
You're the guidance under the sun
Concrete angel, is not real
It's just my conscience—it's the way I feel

Do you have a concrete angel?
