only you can see it
only you know whats going down only you can fulfill these possibilities ooh i love the way you notice me you notice how im feeling and only you can see it nobody knows me like you do and its scary how you can do things for me that no one else can do and thats why i promise to make this right

only you know whats going down

all them others hoes you can see right through them but for me its differently and now i can tell this is going to be something real now that im with you i can see theres something in between us and you can feel it too

only you know whats going down

only you know whats going down
ooh i love the way you notice me

oh i love the way you say my name i love the way you hold me close in your arms nobody can tell how much it means to me and when you kiss me and my lips quiver and make my body vibrate and make my soul shiver i know you're the one you're my destiny and i love the way your lovin me

only you know whats going down
ooh i love the way you notice me

oh yeah
