Bradley:

Listen baby girl I know you feelin like it's the end of the world

And I can't blame you cause yo man left you like this
But let me tell you that I'm different I will treat you right
No strings no ties
I swear I'll be by your side

You gotta understand that baby I will give you anything
Anything you want girl I'll do it for you
Times two
And if I could baby I'd bring you the moon
So I hope we get in touch soon

MUSIC STOPS

Tiffanie: (talking)

Now hold up
If you're gonna rap to me
Make it sound more effective
Like you really want me to be yo girl

Bradley:

Aight cuz
Check this out

MUSIC STARTS AGAIN

Bradley:

Baby girl I been meanin to tell you this
I want yo digits
So I can call you on the phone
And say I love you
Can you dig it
And it's not just me and you baby
It's we and we baby
I know I don't seem like the thug type
But I will treat you right
No strings no ties
I'll be by your side
I'll be down to ride

You can be my Bonnie I'll be your Clyde
Let me change yo mind
Baby let me change yo mind

Tiffanie:

Now listen baby boy I understand you feelin me
And we'd be together forever baby you and me
But there's some things I gotta think about so don't rush me
I just broke up with somebody that's important to me
And he
Said he wouldn't break my heart
And he
Said we wouldn't never part
And he
Said that we would settle down
And I
Woulda been with him forever

Bradley: (Tiffanie)

I know it takes time and I hate to be the rebound
I'm just a puppy and yo old man he just a clown
You shoulda known that he'd never be down
So baby don't frown
I wanna be your everything
Yo mama (my mama?) yo daddy
Yo brother yo sister and yo gots to be lovin nigga
