Jennifer stops explaining
What's on my mind
She doesn't care about it
And there's no crime
She tells me, who loves me ?
She dropped my phone
But it's all right

She thinks that talk is cheap
And now so do I
She knows she'll never want to die on my slide
She's laughing, she's crying
She never calls but it's all right
She's posing, relaxing
She loves herself
But it's all right

She pulls me down
And while I'm Sented
She pulls me down
And I'm back on the ground
Never let me down
You're the best thing that I've found
Just try me I'll be round
