Sometimes they fall i dont know why
Fall from the corner of your eye

Sometimes a river just runs dry
No matter how hard i try

No one can always feel fine
There cant always be sunshine
And if there was you'd wish there weren't

Way on down by the wishing well
There is an old man under a spell

You are the secrets that is learned
You'll get your wish just wait your turn

There is no easy way out
There is no path that's laid out
And if there was you'd wish there weren't

Well sometimes we fall without a sound
A heavy heart can pull you down

And next time the ground just slips away
Just fall on me you'll be okay

No one can always feel fine
There cant always be sunshine
And if there was you'd wish there weren't

There is no easy way out
There is no path that's laid out
And if there was you'd wish there weren't
