So far, it could've been anywhere
But it's here and now
And it's too far to go back
So close, couldn't see you anywhere
But you're here and now
And there's no way to go back
In here, right now, we'll fall into the black

But it's here
And now

I'm not innocent, I want you to know
Hold me down and don't ever leave me alone
Make no promises, break all of the rules
And reach for the heart

Cause you're here and now and now
You're here and now
Cause you're here and now
Here and now
Cause you're here and now

Cause you're here and now and now
You're here and now
Here and now
Cause you're here and now

Cause you're here...
