When you can't think of nothing else but him
When you can't wait until the day begins
And the moment, you see him standing there

When he's gone, you miss him constantly
When he's there, you feel it instantly
And it's heaven, it's everything you ever dreamed

That's when you know
You can never let him go
You don't have to wonder why
The feeling so strong, it cannot be wrong
Dreams do come true
One day he'll come to you
And that's when you know for sure

When you could listen to him endlessly
When you just wanna tell him everything
He's the answer to the questions in your heart

When his smile can always lift you up
And you just pray that this won't ever stop
Cause it's heaven, it's everything you ever dreamed

That's when you know
You can never let him go
You don't have to wonder why
The feeling so strong, it cannot be wrong
Dreams do come true
One day he'll come to you
And that's when you know

There's a chill in the air
And you miss the warmth by the sun
Then he comes through the door
And your life has just begun
Just begun

That's when you know
You can never let him go
You don't have to wonder why

The feeling so strong, it cannot be wrong
Dreams do come true
One day he'll come to you

And that's when you know
Baby trust me you'll know
That's when you know for sure
